

BOOK I

Gamadin

WORD OF HONOR

Synopsis

Sixteen-year-olds Harlowe Pylott and Matt Riverstone had ditched school to bodysurf the killer waves at the Wedge when their fun was interrupted by a yacht capsizing off the Newport, California coast. After the boys rescue the famous movie star Simon Bolt and the half-alien socialite Leucadia Mars from certain death, Fate, unbeknownst to the boys, sends them on the greatest ride of their lives. Robobs and the undog are only the beginning. Dakadude killers and black beasts have swooped down from the heavens looking for the galaxy's most powerful weapon: an ancient Gamadin spaceship named Millawanda.

If the Daks cannot capture Millawanda, they will kill her while she is still weak and unprotected . . . along with the Earth and anyone else who gets in their way.

If you think finding an ancient spaceship in the desert is cool, wait until you get a load of what Harlowe and his friends dig up . . .

And She still works!

Now the resurrections begins . . .
